

REN DUNSTER

DIRECTOR

Ren's expertise and passion lies in commercial law, particularly directors' disputes and fiduciary duties. He is a skilled tactician in High Court litigation and has shrewd business sense to consider all the relevant factors at play.

Ren's other field of expertise is in maritime law and he has successfully handled shipping claims in arresting and attaching vessels for unpaid debts.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF KWAZULU-NATAL

1994 - 1997 | Bachelor of Commerce

UNIVERSITY OF CAPE TOWN

1998 - 2000 | Bachelor of Laws

2005 | LLM | Masters of Law | Tax & Shipping

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Maritime law
- Corporate law
- Dispute resolution
- Litigation
- Property disputes
- Insolvency law

EXPERIENCE

Ren has recently:

- Advised clients on structures for new business ventures and investments both in South Africa and abroad, including shareholder agreements, loan accounts and tax structures.
- Litigated on mining disputes, franchise agreements, intellectual property, liquidation applications and subsequent insolvency enquiries
- Handled shipping claims and maritime insurance matters; arrested and attached vessels regarding unpaid debts and as security for claims to be instituted.
- Successfully litigated in business interruption insurance against Guardrisk, the Cafe Chameleon case.